--- SABOR ANCESTRAL ---

Nestled in the heart of Tolima, amid the verdant landscapes of Planadas, lies the cradle of NXUSXA COFFEE (Pronounced NOO-sha), a brand steeped in history, resilience, and the rich traditions of the Páez indigenous community.

Born from the pioneering spirit of our ancestors in 1902, who traversed dense forests to plant the first coffee seeds in "Vereda la Bella," NXUSXA COFFEE embodies a journey of discovery, struggle, and peace.

Our roots run deep in the fertile soils by the Ata River, where the Paya family first envisioned a future brewed from the finest typical coffee variety. Over the decades, despite challenges and armed conflicts, our community's resolve only strengthened, culminating in a peace treaty that rekindled our passion for coffee cultivation.

Today, the Asociación de Caficultores Indígenas San Pedro, Resguardo Páez de Gaitania, Tolima (ASCI'SP) continues this legacy, ensuring a fair and just price for our producers and delivering a coffee experience unlike any other.

Join us on a journey of flavor, heritage, and hope.
